Pat Law Named Vice President of Real Living Realty Services

DAYTON, Ohio (Aug. 7, 2007) – Real Living Realty Services, which operates in Cincinnati and Dayton, has announced the promotion of Pat Law to vice president. In her new position, Law will work with marketing, operations, sales and training to improve brand recognition, promote agent development and grow the Southwestern Ohio market.

Formerly, Law served as assistant general manager for Real Living Realty Services, where she was responsible for overseeing the daily activities of staff and sales operations, as well as training and coaching agents. She has also worked as training director, recruiter and manager for several Dayton and Cincinnati offices.

"I enjoy being part of Real Living, especially training and recruiting, and helping others grow with more knowledge and confidence," said Law. "We have the power to make a difference for the market and our agents with the tools and technology Real Living has developed."

Law has more than 13 years experience as a licensed Realtor®, specializing in market trends for existing homes, developments, vacant land, investment properties and new home sales.

"Pat has been very successful, and her past experiences show she is a great leader," said Clyde Corle, president and general manager of Real Living Realty Services. "We are positive that she will succeed in her new position and provide great leadership for our Southwest Ohio market."

Law's professional awards and achievements include seven-time member of the Dayton Area Board of Realtors' Sales Leaders' Club and five-time recipient of the Ohio Association of Realtors' President's Club Award of Achievement.
