Real Living Welcomes General Manager for Dayton Market

COLUMBUS, OHIO – (August 16, 2005) – Real Living, the fifth-largest residential real estate firm in the nation, is announcing Clyde Corle as a general manager. He will serve the Dayton and Greater Miami Valley area.

Corle previously has worked as a Relocation Manager for the Troy and Springboro markets and as an office manager in North Dayton for Dayton Real Living. "I am excited and ready to take on this new opportunity with Real Living. Over the next two years, I am expecting to double Real Living Dayton's market share and continue to recruit the best agents in the market" said Corle.

In his new position, Corle will report directly to Harley Rouda, Jr., CEO and managing partner for Real Living. He will oversee offices in Springboro, Centerville, Beavercreek and Englewood, in addition to 120+ sales associates. "When I joined Real Living Dayton in 2002, I knew the growth potential Real Living held in the Dayton market. Over the last three years – I have been able to use my experience and the Real Living toolset to grow the Dayton market place. Since last year alone, I was able to contribute to the growth in Real Living Dayton's revenue by 40%."

Real Living Dayton is independently-owned and operated, with more than 110 Realtors serving Dayton and the Greater Miami Valley area since 2002. To learn more about Real Living, to find a local Realtor to serve your real estate needs, or to see all the homes available in our market, visit
