Real Living Dayton Realtor® Sharon Bailey Is Nominated for OAR Award

DAYTON, OHIO – (September 6, 2005) – Real Living, the fifth-largest residential real estate firm in the nation, is announcing Realtor® Sharon Bailey, as a nominee for the Tomorrow's Leader Today Award given by the Ohio Association of Realtors® (OAR). Bailey was nominated by the Dayton Area Board of Realtors®. This announcement was made by Clyde Corle, Vice President and General Manager for Dayton Operations.

"Being nominated for this award is very exciting and surprising. It's a great opportunity to get some insight on what takes place on the State level. As a new agent, I want to gain exposure to as many facets of Real Estate as I can. This is a great time for me to do this since I'm devoting myself full time to establishing my business," said Bailey.

Bailey became licensed as a Realtor® in January, 2005. "Two things attracted me to Real Living. One was an article that appeared in the Dayton Business Journal at the time Real Living came into the Dayton market. Secondly, an experience with a Real Estate professional at the South Dayton Office gave me confidence to choose this company," said Bailey. Prior to joining Real Living, she owned a Hair and Tanning salon for 22 years.

"I am very excited for her nomination. She is a very talented new agent in the business and is doing everything she can to be successful. Sharon continuously attends training classes and is networking and making strong contacts. I am very proud of her success," said Clyde Corle.

Sharon Bailey works in the Real Living South Dayton office. She can be reached at (937) 431-7145, Sharon.Bailey@Realliving.com, or at her Web site, www.SharonBailey.info.

The Ohio Association of Realtors® will be hosting a convention in downtown Columbus September 11-13. The Tomorrow's Leader Today Award is just one of the many awards OAR will be presenting during the convention.
